Parapara for Dummies

4:00pm-5:00pm | Panel Room 3

Parapara is a popular club dance in Japan, done usually to HI-NRG, Eurobeat, SuperEuroBeat, etc, genre of music. It was made popular in the late 1980s when Japan hit an economical high and everyone went to the discos to dance - namely Julianna's Techno. It transformed into other types of circle dances, including Parapara, Techpara, or Trapara. Now it has grown into other forms such as Ani-para or Cospara. Super EuroHeat is a group in Las Vegas that likes to learn new dances as well as discuss with other para-lists from all over the world about their love of this club dance. We will teach some basic dance moves of parapara and by the end of the panel, participants will know a full para dance! Please come learn more about parapara with us!
